

It's To Your Interest!

Our Stock is Complete and Sufficient to Supply any Demand at Rock Bottom Prices.

Colored Dress Fabrics For Autumn.

We are to the front with the most beautiful collection of Fine Novelty Dress Goods and Cloths that has ever been our pleasure to show. Don't wait till the chilly days drive you here, but make your selections now and you'll be ready when Jack Frost arrives.

Ready Made Dress Skirts

See our complete and up-to-date line before buying

The Douglas Shoe for Men

Give more wear and satisfaction than any other shoe.

Cloaks and Jackets

For Ladies, Misses and Children.

New Waistings

All the late styles and Patterns.

CLOTHING!

For men and boys. The latest and most up-to-date stock of clothing in the county.

The Radcliffe $2.50 Shoe

For women. Looks like and wears like $3.00 and $3.50 shoes

REMEMBER OUR PRICES ARE ALWAYS THE BOTTOM

The one store in town where you are sure to get good goods at a low price.

TAYLOR & CANNAN.

The Press.

S. M. JENKINS,
Editor and Publisher.

ONE YEAR - ONE DOLLAR

J. O. Gray, of Salem, was here Saturday.

C. W. Love, of Salem, was here Saturday.

Bruce Moore, of Tolu, was here last week.

T. A. Minner, of Tolu, was here Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Boyd, of Salem, was here Saturday.

Henry C. McGowan, of Princeton, was here Monday.

J. D. Elder, of Salem, attended conference here last week.

A. J. Bennett and wife were here attending conference last week.

Hon. E. Nunn, of Rodney, was here last week attending conference.

T. S. Threlkeld, of Violet, Ky., song evangelist was here last week.

SHOES! SHOES! - Taylor & Cannan is the place to buy your shoes.

Rev. J. N. Beckner, of Princeton, attended conference here Sunday.

See the new stock of Ready Made Dress Skirts at Taylor & Cannan.

Is your property fully covered by insurance? If not see Bourland & Haynes.

Ready Made Dress Skirts - the nicest selection in town - Taylor & Cannan.

Mrs. Sidney J. Snook, of Louisville, was the guest of Mrs. S. M. Jenkins Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers, of Henderson, visited her sisters and brothers here last week.

Mrs. A. H. Cardin, of View, was here at each service every day during Conference.

Harmon Flannery and wife, of Tolu, were here several days attending conference.

Miss Martha Henry visited friends in Owensboro last week and returned home Saturday.

FOR SALE - Two good wood stoves, one coal stove; also 2 iron mantle pieces. S. M. JENKINS.

Mr. E. E. Metz and wife have rooms at Mrs. Nina Howerton's on North Main street.

Messrs. R. B. and David Collie, of Marshall county, attended conference last week.

Miss Edna Moore has returned home from an extended visit to Hopkinsville and Louisville.

LOST - Last Friday, an upper tooth plate. Finder will receive reward by returning same to Press office.

Miss Martina Bennett, of Hartford, was a guest of Misses Kittie Moore and Bessie Trisler during conference.

If you are aware to your best business interests you will take out fire insurance at once. See Bourland & Haynes.

Mrs. John T. Franks and daughter, Miss Annie Williams left for Salem Tuesday to visit relatives and friends.

Hon. W. J. Stone and wife drove down to attend conference last Saturday. Captain will move here yet, we hope.

Columbus Nealey spent several days in the city last week. Mr. Nealey looks after Swift & Co's interest on the road.

Miss Mabel Goodwin, of Hopkinsville, was the guest of Mr. J. B. Kevil and family during conference and left for Kuttawa Tuesday to attend the Baptist Association.

Mrs. Mattie F. Wilcox, of Gladstone, attended conference here Sunday and visited her daughter, Mrs. Howerton.

Marion High School team played a match game with Kelsey and won by a score of 23 to 2. Hurrah for the M. H. S.

Mrs. J. B. Hubbard and daughter, Miss Mamie, are visiting relatives at Blackford, Providence, Madisonville and Crofton.

The Ohio Valley Produce Co., have sold out their business so it is reported to Armour & Co., the Chicago millionaires.

Blue & Nunn and also the Wilson Mining company had their pay day Saturday. Several thousand dollars in cash were paid out.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Malloy, of Eddyville, were guests of Mrs. Nina Howerton, several days last week, and returned home Monday.

Chas. Conant, and wife of Smithland were here attending conference last week the guest of Mrs. G. C. Gray, also Jas. W. Cade, of Smithland.

FOR SALE - A good family horse about 8 or 9 years old; dark bay will work anywhere, and when worked regularly is perfectly gentle. Apply to R. F. Haynes.

E. H. Sheeks and wife, (formerly Miss Julia Deboe) are visiting her father, Phil Deboe, this week, and also at the residence of Geo. Thomas, their brother-in-law in Marion.

Dr. J. A. Akin, the dentist of Princeton, was here last week the guest of his niece, Mrs. Gus Taylor. Mrs. Akin accompanied him. Dr. Akin's name has long been the synonym of good dentistry.

The trial of John Burget and Roy Daniels, was set for last Tuesday, was postponed on account of fiscal court. It will be held Friday, and the friends of the young men hope they will be cleared of the charge.

Miss Carrie Moore was at home last week attending conference. This is her first visit home since her school began six weeks ago. When any one sticks so closely to school they surely will learn a great deal.

Prof. J. J. Nall and wife attended conference. They now live at Kuttawa. Mr. Nall was one of the founders of the Marion school, and taught here many years. His graduates are among our best business men.

Mrs. Stringer and son of Cross Plains, Tenn., are visiting at Mattoon. Mrs. Stringer is a sister of Messrs. G. D. and Frank Summerville, and was called here by wire to see James Summerville, her nephew, before he died.

Miss Maggie Summerville, of Cross Plains, Tenn., a cousin of Jas. Summerville who died Saturday, came last week to see her relative before he died. The family telephoned her after they had given up all hope and knew the end was near.

Rev. John G. Haynes, of Springfield, Mo., and his wife, daughter of W. M. Clark of Oak Grove neighborhood, are visiting at her father's and also at other places in the county. Mr. Haynes has a fine charge in his new home and is well pleased.

Mrs. S. Hodge and Mrs. Sallie Flannery were here last week attending conference and visiting Mrs. Sue Adams on College street. They now live at Princeton and are partial to their new home, altho fond of Marion where they have many friends and relatives.

Friday afternoon Bishop Hendrix and Dr. Means of Louisville, were the guests of Col. D. C. Roberts, of the Reed Mining company. A tour of the great zinc and lead mines of the county was made. The bishop expressed his astonishment and admiration at the wonderful extent of the mineral resources within a few minutes drive of the city.

Geo. H. Crider is building a house on the lot adjoining Lawrence Crider, near the I. C. Railroad. We are glad Mr. Crider, who is the agent for the Illinois Central at Crayneville, has decided to make his home here.

Mrs. T. Amplas Weldon will leave this week for her home in St. Louis, after spending the summer with the family of E. P. Hill, her father. Mr. Weldon is now employed by a grain firm and has a fine position.

Rev. J. G. Haynes will preach at Tolu Saturday night at 7 o'clock at the M. E. church, south, and Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at Hurricane church. We bespeak for him a cordial reception and large congregations at each place.

Frank Jacobs left Monday night for Lebanon, Tenn., where he enters the old Cumberland University for this term. He will take the theological department. Mr. Jacobs is a fine young man, and his many friends will wish him God speed.

Frank Orr and wife of Princeton, Ind. are visiting the family of R. E. Flannery. Mr. Orr was raised in this county and is a nephew of Miss Rachel Orr. He is in the drug business at Princeton, and is doing well. He is a splendid boy and deserves success.

Frank Wyatt, the gentlemanly planter and capitalist of Fredonia was here Wednesday. Mr. Wyatt is a man of pleasant personality and has many friends and acquaintances all over this section of the state. Mrs. Wyatt, who is the aunt of Mrs. J. W. Wilson, is her guest this week.

Rev. J. F. Price is at Bennettstown, Christian county, this week, at the meeting of the Princeton presbytery. Next week he will go to Sullivan to hold a protracted meeting. Mr. Price is an indefatigable worker and deserves the success he has achieved.

W. B. Enoch, of Mattoon, left for Kansas yesterday by wagon route. Mrs. Enoch and the family will go by railroad. The county loses a good citizen and family and we regret to see it, but we hope for them much prosperity and happiness in their new home.

Mrs. E. C. Moore, of Marion, was in town this week superintending the repairs on her residence on North Railroad street. Marion Clark of Marion, is doing the work. The residence is being repainted and otherwise greatly improved. - Providence Enterprise.

J. B. Simpson, the genial merchant of Salem, was here Friday on business and to attend the Methodist conference. Mr. Simpson is one of the reliable men of this section and is well known at this place, also Shady Grove where he lived for many years. He is pleased with his new home.

Dixie Satterfield and his wife, of Princeton, were here attending conference last Friday. Mr. Satterfield owns the famous Harpending place, which was built by the Diamond King Berry Harpending on Eddy Creek. It was one of the palaces when built, and Mr. Satterfield, we learn is keeping it up in fine shape.

Kilroy and Britton's new play which will be at the Marion Opera House next Tuesday evening, Oct. 13th, styled "An Aristocratic Tramp," is from the pen of Lem B. Parker, author of "For Home and Honor," "A Quaker Wedding," "The Sinking City" and a dozen other popular successes. "An Aristocratic Tramp" is far above the average tramp show in every respect and contains more features in one single act than all the other so-called tramp shows have in four. The scenic effects are gorgeously correct while the cast is made up of the very best dramatic talent New York affords. There are seven big specialty features in addition to the regular company, making the entire production second to nothing of this class traveling and their reception here should be a hearty one to say the least.

Senator Deboe is on the streets again after two months close confinement with rheumatism. He looks considerably thinner and his appearance shows that he has suffered greatly. His friends are glad to see him out.

Corn, hay and bran in stock, prices right, prompt service. Give us a trial. We'll please you. - Yeakey & Travis.

"An Aristocratic Tramp" with Kilroy and Britton heading a big company of the very best eastern talent, will be the attraction at the Opera House next Tuesday evening for one performance only. "An Aristocratic Tramp," is unlike any other play with a so-called tramp title in that it appeals to and pleases the mother, father, son and daughter alike. It yields a beautiful story and makes an evening's entertainment worthy careful attention.

Yeakey & Travis have opened a new feed store, corner Bank and College Street, opposite Marion Graded School. Phone 198.

W. M. Bowman and wife of Eddyville, attended conference here Sunday. They drove over with friends to "hear the Bishop." They reported a pleasant 20 mile drive, and were amply repaid for their trip in hearing the discourse and in the generous hospitality and kindly welcome extended to them. Mr. Bowman and his estimable wife have for many years been the mainstay of the church in their town, and such people are always welcome visitors in Marion.

Our feed stuff is fresh and clean. Quick delivery. Phone 198. Yeakey & Travis.

A camping party composed of W. H. Clark, J. R. Marvel, Tom E. Hearin, Chas. McNeely and Harry Harpending will leave today for the hunting grounds in the Ozark mountains. They will go via Golconda, and cross the State of Illinois to East Cape Girardeau, where they will cross the Mississippi into Missouri and thence into Arkansas and the Ozark mountain country, where big game, bear, deer and the like are found. They will carry a tent, do their own cooking and have a royal old-fashioned camp hunt.

Persons wanting first-class photographs will do well to come in at once and have them made, as my time is limited, and I will be here but a short time. C. C. COOK.

Star Routes - Bidders Wanted.

The postoffice department is now advertising for bids on all star routes in Kentucky, ten in Crittenden county. Bids must be made not later than Dec. 1st. Decisions announced on or before Feb. 1st, 1904. Contracts are for four years from July 1st, 1904.

Speculative bidding prohibited. The rules of the department require a bidder and contractor to live on or near the route and to perform the service or at least give it personal supervision.

Free box delivery and collection of mail on every route.

Postmasters have blanks and can give full information relative to bidding, and requirements of service.

List of routes in Crittenden county: Starr to Marion, 7 miles. Piny to Hardesty, 4 miles. Piny by Tradewater to Repton, 8 miles.

Weston by Rodney and Mattoon to Repton, 11 miles. Marion by Levas to Salem, 12.08 miles. Tolu by Irma, and Sheridan to Marion, 17.50 miles.

Shady Grove by Iron Hill, Tribune to Marion, 14.50 miles. Fords Ferry to Marion, 12 miles. Dyeusburg by Koon and Waters to Kuttawa, 10 miles. Frances to Mexico, 4 miles.

Announcement.

On Oct. 15th

We will have a Cloak and Suit sale for Ladies.

We will show you all the New Garments of the Season.

A representative of one of the largest houses will be at our store with a full line.

Come and look.

Yandell-Gugenheim Co.

Marion Opera House!

OPENING OF THE SEASON.

Tuesday, October 13th

One Night Only!

Kilroy & Britton's Big Scenic Production,

AN ARISTOCRATIC TRAMP

Not like any other play with a tramp title.

See San Francisco at night, the famous Yellow Stone Park, the slums and Chinese district, the exciting automobile race and explosion, and the Sunset Limited going at full speed.

Five Big Specialty Acts!

Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

JAMES SUMMERVILLE DEAD.

Last Saturday just after the sun passed the meridian the spirit of James Summerville passed from earth to eternity. He was surrounded by loving ones - mother, that dearest of all names - father and brothers, and many other relatives and friends, and to them he expressed in unmistakable terms his satisfaction and peace with his Savior. He died in the hope of salvation and was happy when he bade them all good-bye and said, "I am going home." James Summerville was born Sept. 24th, 1877, and died Oct. 3rd, 1903, having just passed his 26th birthday ten days ago. He enlisted in the U. S. army July 1st, 1901, and was sent to Fort Riley, Kansas, where he remained until his health failed, and after being examined by the government physicians it was decided that New Mexico climate would suit his case which was diagnosed as lung trouble, and on May 24, 1902, he was sent to Fort Bayard, New Mexico.

However, that dread disease, consumption, had fastened its fangs upon him and he was discharged from service Sept. 11th and sent home, where it was hoped that a mother's solicitous care and attention, administered with the hand of love would restore him to his wanted health and strength. He reached home Sept. 20th, 1902, and was given every care that could be thought of and was sent to different climates; among other places the mountains of Tennessee and North Carolina, where he remained awhile and traveled considerably hoping to find relief somewhere. He gradually lost strength however, until the end came at his old home last Saturday. The interment was at the new cemetery here Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and a large concourse of friends from the country and town attended.

Rev. Price was to have conducted a song and prayer service at the grave but rain prevented.

The Press extends sympathy to the family in the death of this young man who had just reached a promising age in his career.

DR. GRAY HERE.

As announced in our last issue, Dr. C. L. Gray, the ophthalmologist, arrived last Tuesday and is stopping at the New Marion Hotel, where all those whose eyes need attention are invited to call and consult him free of charge. Dr. Gray is no stranger here, having made many visits here before, and most of our people are his acquaintances. He is known as a reputable high toned gentleman and thoroughly skilled in his profession. Whatever he says or does may be depended upon implicitly. We bespeak for him a fine patronage.

HERE.

Dr. C. L. Gray, ophthalmologist, who is now located at the New Marion Hotel will remain until Tuesday Oct. 13th, when he goes to Salem for one week only, this trip - 13th to 19th. He will scientifically test and correctly fit your eyes with the proper lenses for the improvement of vision and relief of nerve-strain, often the cause of headaches and other nervous troubles. Satisfaction guaranteed in every case and no charge for examination and testing.

THE OHIO VALLEY SCHOOL TOURNAMENT.

MARION, KY., APRIL 23-24, 1904.

Participants - Henderson, Corydon, Morganfield, Uniontown, Sturgis, Marion, Princeton and Hopkinsville schools.

HIGH SCHOOL CONTESTS.
An Oratorical Contest.
An Essay Contest.
A Debating Contest.
A Recitation Contest.

FIRST YEAR LATIN.
A Latin Contest - Latin Caesar.
Virgil and Cicero.
Mathematical Contest:
High Arithmetic.
High Algebra.
Geometry.

Extempore Speech.
GRAMMAR GRADES.
Best speller under 9.
Best speller under 12.
Best speller under 15.
Reading same conditions.
Best declamation 1st to 4th grades.
Best declamation 5th to 8th grades.
Best U. S. History Pupil.
Best Geography Pupil.

Best all round 1st grade pupil.
Best 2nd grade pupil in reading.
Best 3rd grade pupil in number.
Best 4th grade pupil in language.
Best 5th grade pupil in number.
Best 6th grade pupil in Physiology.
Best 7th grade pupil in Geography.
Best 8th grade pupil in Civics.

ATHLETICS.
Base ball, horizontal bar work.
Running high jump; running broad jump, standing broad jump, hundred yards dash, 220 yard dash, throwing the hammer, sack race, potato race, shoe race. The best all around school exhibit.

Wanted!

MULES AND HORSES.

We will be in Marion, Monday Oct. 12th.

Salem, Tuesday Oct. 13th.

Fredonia, Wednesday Oct. 14th for the purpose of buying good mules and horses.

Bring your stock and get the top market price.

LYNNE & MOSLEY